

THE CONGRESS VENUE

The main building of St. Petersburg State University of Economics is located in the very heart of historical downtown. The building itself used to belong to the State Bank of the Russian Empire founded by Catherine II in the 18th century.

Nowadays the main UNECON building combines historical architecture and modern equipment, cultural inheritance and cutting-edge technology.

Hosting more than 400 events annually, UNECON offers fully equipped conference halls and meeting rooms for 20 to 320 persons.

WHY UNECON, WHY ST. PETERSBURG?

One of the strongest scientific schools in Russia

Widest global partner network of UNECON

Venue in the centre of St. Petersburg near all major sights

White nights season in St. Petersburg

Dear Colleagues!

It is a pleasure for me to invite you to the 15th International Congress of Accounting Historians that will be held in July 2020 in one of the most beautiful cities of the world – Saint Petersburg.

I am glad to invite all participants, everyone interested in the history of accounting.

Saint Petersburg State University of Economics is one of major economic universities in Russia where the history of accounting and modern knowledge is always important.

I believe that meetings we have here in July 2020 will be fruitful, interesting and enjoyable to all the participants.

Once again welcome to Saint Petersburg, to Russia, to Saint Petersburg State University of Economics, and to the 15th Congress of Accounting Historians!

Looking forward to meeting you here,
Rector Prof. Igor Maksimtsev
